

AHPA

ADVENTIST HEALTH
POLICY ASSOCIATION

February 2016

The Adventist Health Policy Association (AHPA) is the policy voice for five Seventh-day Adventist health care systems with 84 hospitals and 400 affiliated health care facilities in 17 states and the District of Columbia.

Community Benefit & The Future of Health Care - January 12 - 13, 2016

On January 12 and 13, an historic gathering convened at the headquarters of the Adventist Health System in Orlando, Florida. Over 90 representatives from five Seventh-day Adventist health systems in the U.S. assembled for two days to share ideas, inspiration, and best practices for community health development and faith-health models.

Click here to read more about this conference.

Check out AHPA's Partner - Loma Linda's Institute on Health Policy and Leadership

The Adventist Health Policy Association (AHPA) partners with Loma Linda's Institute on Health Policy and Leadership (IHPL). The partnership began in 2013 with the IHPL serving as the principal research and academic center for AHPA.

Click here to read more about IHPL.

AHPA welcomes a new member hospital

AHPA recently went from 83 hospitals to 84. Florida Hospital Winter Garden opened earlier this week in West Orange County, Florida. The facility includes an outpatient imaging center, pharmacy and lab, an outpatient surgery center, and a multi-specialty clinic that will host a variety of physician practices to serve the community's needs.

Click here for more information about Florida Hospital Winter Garden.