

February 2017

Mission: Healing America's Communities Conference

On February 6 & 7th Loma Linda University Health hosted AHPA's Mission: Healing America's Communities conference. We had 55 participants from all five systems that came together to learn more about Community Benefit and Community Health. A special thank you to all who presented and attended. Thank you to Loma Linda for graciously hosting us.

Spotlight on Health Policy

AHPA's Director, Maureen Kersmarki, spoke on February 6th at the Institute for Health

Policy and Leadership's Spotlight on Health Policy. Her presentation: Moving to People-Centered Care: Where Does Health Happen touched on strategies for embracing people-centered care that connects to the communities we serve and are a part of. You can view her slides by clicking below.

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY

Institute for Health Policy and Leadership

The Institute on Health Policy just published a new blog article, Why do Some Families Struggle to Manage Pediatric Chronic Illness, which looks at the relationship between stress and adherence to treatment for children (and families) with chronic illness. The blog can be found at <http://ihpl.llu.edu/blog>.
